TODAY IS THE LAST SHOWING

Mary Pickford Great Hit at Wigwam in "Poor Little Rich Girl."

Today is the very last chance to see Mary Pickford in "A Poor Little Rich Girl." The thousands of patrons of the Wigwam are unanimous in their verdict that this is the best thing that Mary Pickford has ever done. As little 11 year old "Gwendolin," the "Poor Little Rich Girl," Miss Pickford has a part which fits her in every way. Never before has she appeared to better advantage. It is a mystery how even "Little Mary" with her youthful appearance could make herself look as young as she does.

The story is a sweet, pleasing one and one that has given the director chances to depart from the routine production and give the public something new and entertaining. Every admirer of Mary Pickford should see her in this picture. Grown-ups will be just as interested in it as the children, and the children will revel in Mary's adventures in the "Tall Tale Forest" and the "Land of Light."

Remember, today is the last chance to see this Mary Pickford masterpiece in the fullest meaning of the term. Thursday and Friday—Mary Miles Minter in "The Gentle Intruder," which is said to be her best. "The Gentle Intruder" was produced under the direction of James Kirkwood, who has directed Miss Minter in the other features and who directed Mary Pickford's successes. George Fisher plays opposite the star, while Eugene Forde, as the ambitious wife; Harry Clark, as the conscience-tortured lawyer; Frank Van Tassel, as a sinisterly named Franklin Ritchie, in the role of a fortune-seeking nobleman; and George Periolat, as the bequeather of a fortune, all add much to the worth of the photoplay.

See Mary Miles Minter and compare her with Mary Pickford. Come to the matinee and avoid the night crowds, as Miss Minter is one of the most popular actresses on the screen.—Adv.

CATTELEMEN JOIN IN THE CARNIVAL

'BLACK ORCHIDS' A WAMPYRE PLAY

One of the most beautiful photoplays is promised as the attraction at the Unique theater, commencing tomorrow, when "Black Orchids" appears as the star of "Black Orchids" is a story of a flirt. Zoraida was more than a flirt—she was a designing, cold hearted adventuress who seemed to delight in using her great beauty as a snare to entrap men who she might play with their hearts and cast them ruthlessly aside. One by one her admirers fell at her feet to bask for a while in the smiles of her affection, one by one she shook them off and turned each time to fasten upon another and newer victim. She becomes successfully the mistress of three men, then doubles back in the first of the three the younger chap whose father has had him sent to the front battle line so that he may not interfere with the elder man's intrigues with the fascinating play. The drama gets its title from a wreath of black orchids which the woman has procured for the tomb of her third lover, after the young soldier fights with, and supposes he has killed a wealthy marquis, who has willed the woman a large fortune. The show for "Black Orchids" starts at 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 1:15 p. m., 2:30, 3:45, 5, 6:15, 7:30, 8:45 and 10 p. m.—Adv.

Interest and this was the case outside the fence as well as inside it, for many people stood all evening to watch the "boy-riders" as they were whirled about the big disc on which the cable which hauls the cars runs. It is almost as much fun to watch the riders as it is to take the trip and there was no vacant seat in any of the cars all evening. That the true carnival spirit prevailed was evidenced by the fact that the Texas wind and the merry-go-round both did a big business. Capt. Allen Kent King, assisted by Mlle. LaBelle Salina, confined to a strict attention with his splendid animal shows, and the "Comedy Circus," in which all parts are taken by the animals. Carlyle Cooper and Sterling Stearns, the motorcycle riders, did some very clever work, and, when you realize that these men reach a speed of over 60 miles an hour in a cup only 25 feet in diameter and 28 feet high of which the walls are practically perpendicular, it is easy to comprehend why people like to watch them riding. The Amaze and Wonderland contain some clean and interesting features and freaks and the illusions in Wonderland are very hard to explain or understand. Blaney Blaney continues to amuse the people and when he breaks four by fours over his head, he demonstrates that he has a remarkable head.

Jolly Jolly, who has gained almost a hundred pounds here in El Paso this winter, is a pretty good advertisement for the climate of the southwest and is always glad to tell just how much she eats every day. Special features are being given for the visiting cattlemen and the carnival grounds are a favorite gathering place for them.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

"IDLE WIVES" AT THE GRECIAN. Those who have not yet seen Lois Weber's newest success, "Idle Wives," which is being shown at the Grecian, and which is creating widespread discussion in this city, should by all means go to the Grecian today or tomorrow. There are just two days left in which to see this splendid production, and to hesitate now may mean to miss it altogether, and to miss it means to miss one of the most absorbing photoplays that have been shown in El Paso in many months.

"Idle Wives" deals with all humanity. It is a veritable "Life's Mirror," in which all human failings are vividly reflected. It shows the evils of too much money and of not enough. It lays bare every phase of life. It shows vice in its true color and how it defiles the sanctuary of the home. It brings us face to face with the problems of life. It shows us the shame and foibles of the rich and the shame and misery of erring girls. It brings us into intimate touch with all those things in life that every one of us should know. And it presents these subjects in a manner that grips and interests us.

The theme of this great drama is told, but it is handled in the masterly, dignified way only as that marvelous woman, Lois Weber, can handle it. It presents its great truths frankly and fearlessly, and yet we never have occasion to blush.

It is a picture that every man and woman, married or single, should see. Those who go to the Grecian today or tomorrow are promised an hour and thirty minutes of solid entertainment and much food for thought.—Adv.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG. "The Prime Sin," with Miss Clara Kimball Young as the star, will be the Selznick-Pictures feature at the Alhambra theater today. This photodrama of the life of a beautiful young society woman is from the immensely popular novel by David Graham Phillips. It outlines the problems in the life of a young woman, used to luxurious surroundings, who finds herself almost without resources. After a disastrous marriage she determines to become an opera singer, and the difficulties she encounters form a series of scenes of unusual interest. How she finally reaches independence and freedom is a fascinating story. The director is Charles Giblin, this being the first of his Selznick productions.—Adv.

THE "FOX" COMEDY AT BHOE. The Bhoie theater presents today the William Fox comedy, "Her Father's Station," featuring Anna Luther. A riot of laughter, stunts and surprises never approached on the screen. Frank Daniels, the popular comedian, and favorite of both young and old, will be seen also in a good number.—Adv.

BOOSTERS' TRAIN WILL GO SUNDAY OVER TEXAS PACIFIC. The special train carrying the El Paso boosters to Fort Worth, will leave at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, March 11, over the Texas & Pacific instead of the G. I. & S. A., as formerly announced. The change in the routing was made necessary by circumstances over which the El Paso committee had no control. Stops will be made for band concerts at all points reached during waking hours, Sunday and Monday. Fort Worth will be reached at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. A parade of the streets of Fort Worth will be made by the El Pasoans, headed by their band, immediately upon arrival. Headquarters will have been established by George H. Clements in the Westbrook hotel and those headquarters will be the objective point of the first day's parade. Mr. Clements will reach Fort Worth Saturday afternoon.

SOLDIERS IN CAMP STEWART TO HAVE ATHLETICS TONIGHT. A program of athletic contests will be held tonight at Camp Stewart for the entertainment of the troops who are held there in quarantine. The program will consist of boxing contests, wrestling matches, singing and dancing and a band concert by the Fifth cavalry band. The entertainment has been arranged by Captain M. T. P. O'Keefe, Fifth cavalry, and will be held between the Knights of Columbus and the Y. M. C. A. hall in the south part of the camp. Lieut. N. Courtenay, 12th Pennsylvania infantry, will be master of ceremonies.

Many More Women Are Willing to Testify

MRS. BETTIE LACEY.

Many women in Texas and everywhere in the United States sing the praises of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and many are the women in this state who are willing to testify to its merits as do the following:
Mrs. Bettie Lacey, residing at 1815 E. 2nd St., Austin, Texas, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it to be a fine remedy for women's ailments. It helped me when other remedies failed. It is surely a great medicine."
Mrs. Lucy E. Yeckum, of 2122 Clinton Ave., Fort Worth, Texas, says: "I was in such bad health and so despondent at times that I couldn't do my work. I tried everything I could bear of. Doctors treated me but I only got relief for a short time until I tried Dr. Pierce's wonderful medicine. Have been in much better health since using Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I weighed 167 at that time, now I am well and hearty and weigh 135 lbs. I praise Dr. Pierce's medicine very highly and recommend them to every suffering woman."

Mrs. Lizzie Epperson, who lives at 1229 Gould Ave., Fort Worth, Texas, says: "I can recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to every woman suffering from trouble peculiar to women or nervousness. I was very nervous and losing weight so fast I became alarmed over my condition. I could not do any housework. A friend told me about Favorite Prescription and I tried it and began gaining in weight at once."
Favorite Prescription can be obtained at almost any up-to-date drug store, in either liquid or tablet form. If not obtainable at dealer's send $1.00 to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will send large package of tablets. It has the guarantee of nearly 50 years behind it, and does not contain alcohol, narcotics, but ingredients are plainly printed on the wrapper. Entirely vegetable and extracted from native roots and herbs.
Mrs. Elar Sudduth, of Paris, Texas, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for many things and find it to do all that he claims for it. I think it is a wonderful medicine."
